

A Prayer For Those Who Are Shedding Innocent Blood

Our Father and Savior, Yahushua we come to you now in holy prayer to ask for the forgiveness of our sins, as we forgive those who have come against us. We know that we are not perfect, and we have also sinned. 'None are righteous, no not one', and you died on the cross for all of your children, no matter what they have done.

We pray for those who are lost, misguided and deceived. We pray for their souls and for their salvation. We pray that they would turn from doing what is evil and do what is good and pleasing in Your sight. We pray that they would find you and return to the arms of a loving Father whose heart is wide open to receive them. Please Father, take their hearts of stone and make them hearts of flesh. Take their desires to shed blood and change them into Your desire for them to walk in the fruits of The Spirit - love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, and faithfulness.

May your blood cover these prayers, as we humbly ask that those who are spilling innocent blood be convicted, broken and repent this moment. We speak of those who are in any way involved in abortion, the murder of Christian believers, and the murder of any innocent person in Your eyes, such as the mentally disabled or mentally handicapped, etc.

We know that judgment is here, and we pray that your justice would be used to change the hearts and minds of those who are participating in crimes against your children. May their hearts be convicted by Your Spirit and by Your Word, and may they be broken for what breaks your heart. May they understand that what they are doing is not of The Lord, not holy or righteous, and we pray that Your Spirit would draw them closer and uncover the blood that is on their hands, so that they would have the fear of The Lord and return to You in brokenness.

We know your heart and that you desire that not one would be lost. We know that all sin is the same in your sight, and that you desire that all would come to a place of humility and repentance. We pray that you would move the hearts and souls of all men, especially those who are shedding innocent blood to realize that You are God, The Maker of all creation and the Just Judge who will recompense all deeds and actions according to the commandments in Your Word.

Father, You are the only one who can bring them out of darkness and heal the pain. You are the only one who can make them understand that you love them with a neverending love. You are the only one who can change them with your all-consuming fire and transform them into a new creation in You for Your purposes and for Your glory. We pray, therefore, in the Your mighty name, the Name that is above all names - Yahushua (Jesus Christ) that you would cover all those who are shedding innocent blood with your Holy and sanctified blood. We pray that you will direct them to the narrow way, the path of righteousness for Your Name's sake and would bring them back into the fold. We pray and bind the spirits of darkness that are working within them or around them, and we loose Your light and Your love, Your Spirit of truth and conviction, and Your mighty faith, the kind that moves mountains.

We pray that those who are doing evil will return to you this day. We pray for the forgiveness of their sins, and we ask you Father to extend Your heart to them so that they may return as a son or daughter of the Most High God. Whatever it takes Father, we pray for a bountiful harvest of souls including all those who are shedding innocent blood. Please bring them home to You and to Your heart. Please redeem them by Your blood and by Your hand of mercy and grace.

We pray all of this in Your Holy and Precious Name,

Amen, Amen, and Amen.
